2. PURPOSE

The purpose of these guidelines is to assist all staff (but more particularly Directors and Key Management Personnel) to avoid conduct known as 'insider trading'.

This policy extends to stakeholders and the Company will inform any contractor, consultant or external adviser engaged by it and who may in the course of the engagement come in contact with insider information of the provisions of this policy and require them to be bound by same for a defined period of time during and after their period of engagement.

Insider Trading is the practice of dealing in a company's securities (i.e. shares or options) by a person or group of persons (for example, a director, employee, contractor or consultant) who being in possession of some confidential and price sensitive information not generally available to the public, utilizes such information to buy or sell securities for the benefit of himself, itself or any person. Legally, it is an offence which carries severe penalties, including imprisonment.

3. WHAT TYPES OF TRANSACTIONS ARE COVERED BY THIS POLICY?

This policy applies to both the sale and purchase of any securities of the Company in issue from time to time.

- a. Prohibition
- b. Insider trading is a criminal offence. It may also result in civil liability. In broad terms, a person will be guilty of insider trading if:
 - a) That person possesses information which is not generally available to the market and, if it were generally available to the market, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities (i.e., information that is 'price sensitive'); and
 - b) That person:
 - i. Buys or sells securities of the Company; or
 - ii. Procures someone else to buy or sell securities of the Company on his or her behalf; or
 - iii. Passes on that information to a third party where that person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the third party would be likely to buy or sell the securities or procure someone else to buy or sell the securities of the Company.

c. Dealing through third parties

The insider trading prohibition extends to dealings by individuals through nominees, agents or other associates, such as family members, family trusts and family companies (referred to as “Associates” in this policy).

4. GUIDELINES FOR TRADING IN THE COMPANY’S SECURITIES

a. All staff must not, except in exceptional circumstances, deal in securities of the Company during the following “Closed Periods”:

c. No short-term trading in the Company’s securities

Directors and Key Management Personnel must never engage in short-term trading of the Company’s securities for example buying and selling of shares within a period of thirty (30) days.

d. Securities in other companies

Buying and selling securities of other companies with which the Company may be dealing is prohibited where an individual possesses information which is not generally available to the market and is ‘price sensitive’. For example, where an individual is aware that the Company is about to sign a major agreement with

- ix. Trade under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as a rights issue, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the board.
